

SHANNON D. DICUS, SHERIFF-CORONER

Federal Marijuana Guidelines

The recreational use of marijuana in the State of California is legal; however, please be aware that under the Controlled Substance Act, marijuana use and possession is still illegal under Federal laws. Furthermore, 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) prohibits the shipment, transportation, receipt, or possession in or affecting interstate commerce of a firearm by one who: has been convicted of a felony in any Federal, including a general court-martial, State or local court, or any other crime, punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year; is a fugitive from justice; is an unlawful user of, or addicted to narcotics, marijuana, or any other controlled substance; has been adjudicated as a mental defective or has been committed to a mental institution; has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions; is subject to certain restraining orders; convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence under Federal, including a general court-martial, State or Tribal, or local law; has renounced his/her U.S. citizenship; is an alien illegally in the United States or an alien admitted to the United States under a nonimmigrant visa.

It is incumbent on all CCW applicants to be aware of Federal guidelines and legal repercussions concerning possession of a firearm and the recreational use of marijuana.
